NHTSA,

This is in response to the letter D&D Farm and Ranch received concerning the request for a Dometic Defect and Noncompliance Information Report. D&D Farm and Ranch is a dealer that primarily sells new vehicles for purposes other than resale. D&D does have a service department that purchases refrigerator replacement parts from Dometic for repair purposes only.

If you have any questions, please call @ 830-379-7340 or email me @ keet@d-farmranch.com.

Respectfully,

B. Keet Slone
