Subject: Recall (EQ08-015)

Alex

We received notice of a potential problem with a shower door manufactured by Irvine door resulting in a recall of this product. I have researched our purchasing history and also contacted Irvine Door and they reviewed their history and we both agree that we have never purchased the model of shower door in question.

I would appreciate any information on any further steps I need to take to be compliant on this matter.

Thank you

Tom Jones
