Alex,

Camping World is our storefront name. Our entity is CWI, Inc. You may have us also listed as National Supply. The National Supply name was used many years ago (and for some reason is still on our check stock). But if you want to buy something from us, you should go to a Camping World store or www.campingworld.com.

Jared- One question: Who was our letter addressed to? I don't have a Camping World on my mailing list.

Mr. Ansley,

I received a letter from the NHTSA on January 4 regarding a recall of shower doors manufactured by Irvine Shade and Door, Inc. We have made purchases from this vendor in the past, but not these doors.

Even though we have no part in this matter, we take motor vehicle safety very seriously. Please let me know what other information you may need from us. Also please advise what formal response we should make and to whom it should be addressed.

Sincerely,

Jared Smalling
