

June 2012

Dear General Motors Customer:

As the owner of a 2006 model year Chevrolet Equinox or Pontiac Torrent, your satisfaction with our product is very important to us.

This letter is intended to make you aware that some 2006 model year Chevrolet Equinox and Pontiac Torrent vehicles may have a condition where the Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning (HVAC) System may not operate as designed due to a fracture of the HVAC temperature valve. If this occurs, the blower motor speed and mode selection (floor, vents, defrost) will continue to function; however, heated air will not be available.

Do not take your vehicle to your GM dealer as a result of this letter unless you believe that your vehicle has the condition as described above.

What We Have Done: General Motors is providing owners with additional protection for the condition described above. If this condition occurs on your 2006 model year Chevrolet Equinox or Pontiac Torrent within 10 years of the date your vehicle was originally placed in service or 120,000 miles (193,000 km), whichever occurs first, the condition will be repaired for you at no charge. Diagnosis or repair for conditions other than the condition described above is not covered under this special coverage program.

What You Should Do: If you believe that your vehicle has the condition described above, repairs and adjustments qualifying under this special coverage must be performed by a General Motors dealer. You may want to contact your GM dealer to find out how long they will need to have your vehicle so that you may schedule the appointment at a time that is convenient for you. This will also allow your dealer to order parts if they are not already in stock. Keep this letter with your other important glove box literature for future reference.

Reimbursement: If you have paid for repairs for the condition described in this letter, please complete the enclosed form and present it to your dealer with all required documents. Working with your dealer will expedite your request, however, if this is not convenient, you may mail the completed form and all required documents to Reimbursement Department, PO Box 33170, Detroit, MI 48232-5170. The completed form and required documents must be presented to your dealer or received by the Reimbursement Department by June 30, 2013, unless state law specifies a longer reimbursement period.

If you have any questions or need any assistance, just contact your dealer or the appropriate Customer Assistance Center at the number listed below.
