Dear Ms. Timian:

Monaco RV, LLC (f/k/a Navistar RV, LLC) has received EQ 13-004. Upon investigation, it has been determined that there were no affected Dometic awnings installed on new vehicles manufactured by Monaco RV, LLC. According to Dometic, one affected awning was ordered through Monaco RV's parts department. It was drop shipped from Dometic direct to Alliance Coach, Inc. where it was installed as an aftermarket replacement part.

Alliance Coach has been notified of the recall. Dometic has been supplied with vehicle and owner information and is issuing recall notification to the vehicle owner.

Since Monaco RV did not manufacture any new vehicles with the affected Dometic awnings, we did not submit a defect report for this matter. If you have additional questions or concerns, please contact my office at (800) 685-6545.

Sincerely,
